

QUIPS FROM BOB

We are off and running in 2010! I feel sure it is going to pass by as quickly as did 2009, but take heart it only brings us a little closer to our eternal destination, and that seems a sweeter thought every year. If you did not pick up one of the schedules Bro. Harry printed of the activities this year then ask for one they are available. We are having some good activities and trips coming up so don't miss any of them. We are still in Revelation in our Bible Study the 2nd Thursday of the month but will soon finish. Be thinking what you would like to study next. Any suggestions will be considered and a decision will be forthcoming. Have a Jesus filled month.

Love,
Bro. Bob

Food for Thought

God said, "That it is an impossibility to love Me without loving the ones for whom My Son died," John 13:34-35. Our lives will not convince those around us of the reality of Jesus if you cannot live in unity and love with your fellow Christians.

Just for Laughs

A lady went into a small town post office and asked for five dollars worth of stamps. "What denomination?" ask the clerk. "WELL!" came the angry reply from the lady, "I didn't realize it had gotten this bad, but if you must know, I'm a Methodist!"

The Lamplighter's Class has a new Women of the Bible Wall Hanging.

It has 32,079 stitches and many hours in it.

It was made with love and donated by a member of the Lamplighter's Class.
